

State of Kentucky
Fleming Circuit Court - September Term 1832.

The foregoing Declaration of David Hopkins, in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June the 7th 1832 was heard to the open Court by the said David Hopkins. And also the affidavit of Isaac Prest and the certificates of Herald Riley and Daniel Tickles, this day was also allowed to the open Court.

And the said Court do hereby declare their opinion after the investigation of the matter, and after putting the interrogatories prescribed by the War Department, that the above named applicant was a revolutionary soldier, and served as he states. And the Court further certifies, that it appears to them, that Herald Riley who has signed the preceding certificate is a Clergyman, resident in the County of Fleming, and that Daniel Tickles who has also signed the same is a resident in the same County and is a credible person, and that their statement is entitled to credit.

I, Lincoln D Stockton, Clerk of the Court, for the Circuit aforesaid, do hereby certify that the foregoing contained the original proceeding of the said Court in the matter of the application of David Hopkins for a pension.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal of office, this 13th day of September 1832.

L. D. Stockton.
